Sustainability & Corporate Responsibility Reporting A GRI G4 Certified Training by EY

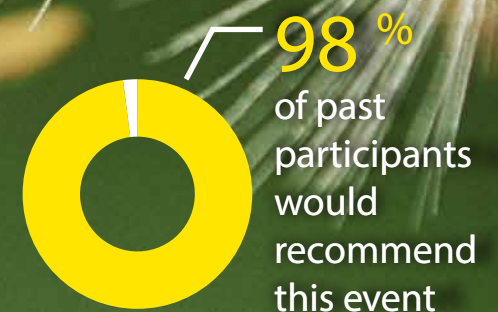

EY, a Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) Certified Training Partner, cordially invites you to the two-day GRI certified training on G4, the latest version of the global de-facto guidelines on sustainability reporting.

The course will be delivered by GRI nominated trainers from EY's Climate Change & Sustainability Services network and will host sustainability professionals, as guest speakers, from Greek leading companies.

The training is suitable for all organizations looking to initiate or improve their sustainability reporting, covering also those required to comply with the new EU Directive on non-financial disclosures.

A Certificate of Completion will be issued directly by GRI.
